Recorded the 20th day of Sept., 1926.

W.B. Jones, Chancery Clerk
H. D. Lane, D.C.

We, B. C. Shackelford, Theo Dinkins & J. J. McGrath, of the County of Madison, and State of Mississippi, in consideration of the sum of valuable consideration to me in hand paid by, L.P.Hossley, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have granted, sold, and conveyed, and by these instruments, do grant, bargain, sell, and convey unto the said L.P.Hossley an undivided 1/32nd interest in and to all oil, gas, and mineral rights in and under that certain tract of land, situated in Madison County, State of Mississippi, and described as follows, to wit:-

SW 1/4 NE 1/4 Section 21, T 10 R 4 East containing 40 acres more or less

We intend to convey and do convey an undivided one-half interest in all of the interest owned by us in said property.

This conveyance is subject to a certain oil and gas lease, executed by Mrs W. K. Baldwin to Wade Stillwagon, dated the 20th day of April, 1925, and recorded in Book C. F. page 327, of the deed records of Madison County, Mississippi, this reference is here made.

This transfer also conveys the bonus, rentals, and royalties, which may be due or become due and payable under said lease, together with all of the rights and privileges necessary for the operation and development of said premises, for oil, gas, and minerals, and also the right to erect such improvements and equipments upon said premises for the purpose of removing said minerals from said premises.

To have and to hold the above described property rights and privileges unto the said L. P. Hossley, his heirs and assigns forever, and we do hereby warrant the title of the above described rights and privileges unto the said L.P.Hossley his heirs and assigns forever, against every person claiming or to claim the same forever. If no oil or gas is discovered and developed to extent of production within five years after May 11, 1926, this conveyance shall become null and void.

Witness my signature this 14th day of August, 1926.
