- 105.00 due Dec. 1, 1924;

Each of said notes bearing interest at 6% per annum after Sept. 1, 1923, I, Frank Larson, hereby convey and warrant unto the said H. S. Bridges the following property in the City of Canton, County of Madison, and State of Mississippi, to-wit:

All of the fixtures and appurtenances belonging to and in any way connected with the barber shop formerly known as Lockett's Barber Shop, purchased by me from H. B. Lockett, Jr., on the north side of the public square, in said City, located in what was formerly known as the Pratt building.

Said H. S. Bridges, assumes all taxes lawfully assessed against said property due from and after January 1, 1924.

A vendor's lien in the nature of a mortgage is hereby reserved in favor of the grantor, with power of sale in Tip Ray, or whomsoever said Larson may desire to appoint in his place, and it is agreed that in event of the failure of said H. S. Bridges to pay any or all of said notes, as the same severally mature, then the said Larson may, at his option, without notice to said Bridges, declare all of said notes due and payable at once, and said property may be sold at public outcry, to the highest and best bidder, for cash, by said Tip Ray, or whomsoever may be appointed in his place, after first giving 10 days notice of the time, place and terms of said sale by posting two notices thereof in writing in two public places in said county, (one notice in each place), and from the proceeds of said sale there shall first be paid the expenses of said sale, next the balance due said Larson on said notes, and any balance remaining shall be paid over to said H. S. Bridges.

The said Larson reserves the right to purchase at such sale.
Witness our signatures on this August 21, 1923.
