Recorded this the 30th day of Dec. 1925
W.B. Jones, Clerk
H.D. Lane, D.C.

Whereas on November 10th, 1924, we Bass O'Leary and Isidore Gross, sold to O.F. Mansell the timber shown in that deed recorded in Book 3 on page 406 in the Chancery Clerk's office of Madison County, Mississippi by which the said Mansell had the right to remove said timber within five years from said date, and whereas he may not be able to do so.

Now therefore we agree to allow him 6 years from said date to remove said timber upon his paying to us the sum of $12.00 and should he not be able to remove said timber within six years, we agree to allow him 7 years from said date in which to remove said timber upon his paying to us the ~~xxx~~ further sum of $12.00. But at the expiration of said seven years from November 10th, 1924, all timber then remaining upon said lands shall revert to us.

Witness our signatures and seals this 10th, day of December 1925.
