Also, ⁽²⁶⁾ 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ of Lot 26 on the North side of West Fulton Street, - there being two houses on this lot, - the same being the S $\frac{1}{2}$ of Lot 26, in Fulton Addition to the City of Canton.

Also, Lot 12 on the South side of West Peace Street, - there being four houses on this lot, said lot being lot 12 of Fulton's Addition to the City of Canton.

Also, S $\frac{1}{2}$ of Lot 9 of Fulton Addition to the City of Canton, said lot having 80 foot frontage on the North side of West Peace Street, and running back 130 feet parallel with Chestnut Street, there being three houses on this lot.

Also, that certain lot in Couch & Yeargain's Addition to the City of Canton situated on the West side of Frost Street, described as follows : Beginning about 95 feet North of the North side of North Street, and on the West side of Frost Street, and run thence North about 85 feet, and thence West 80 feet, and thence South about 85 feet and thence East to the point of beginning, there being one house on this lot, and intending to convey the lot now occupied by Nat Kerner, and being the lot on which is situated the second house from North Street going North on the West side of Frost Street. The vacant lot lying immediately North of the lot here conveyed is not intended to be conveyed.

Also, W $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 16, and W $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 17, & W $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 18, in Couch & Yeargain's Addition to the City of Canton, - there being three houses on the above described lots, and intending to convey the lots conveyed to B. M. Hesdorffer by T. E. Bourgeois by deed recorded in Book YYY, page 188 in said County. Said lots fronting 225 feet, more or less, on Canal Street and running back to a depth of 145 feet, more or less.

Also, Lot 7, in Couch & Yeargain's Addition to the City of Canton, there are four houses situated on this lot.

Also, W $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 19, in Couch & Yeargain's Addition to the City of Canton, - said Lot fronting 50 feet on Frost Street and running back along the Alley that runs along the North side of same 200 feet, more or less, - there is one house on this lot.

Also, E $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 11 & E $\frac{1}{2}$ Lot 12, in Couch & Yeargain's Addition to the City of Canton, there being two houses on these two lots.

Intending by the last two paragraphs to describe the two lots facing Railroad Street and the 1 lot facing Frost Street, lying just South of the City Water Works Plant, and bounded on the North by the Road or Alley that runs from Railroad Street to Frost Street at the North end of said Couch & Yeargain's Addition.

Also, that certain lot described as follows : Beginning on the South side of North street and on the East side of Hickory Street at the intersection of said Streets, and run thence East along the south side of North Street 85 feet, more or less, thence South 209 feet, more or less, and thence West 85 feet in Hickory Street, and thence North along East side of Hickory Street 209 feet, more or less, to the point of beginning. There are two houses and one vacant lot intended to be conveyed by this description.

Also, the following described lot on the South side of Tuteur Street, to-wit: Beginning at the N. W. Corner of the Lot now owned by W. B. Wiener on the South side of Tuteur Street, and running thence West 90 feet, more or less, to a fence and thence South along said fence 87 feet, more or less, and thence East to the SW Corner of said Wiener lot and thence North along the West side of said Wiener lot to the point of beginning: - the lot here conveyed being a lot off of the East end of Lot 29, said lot 29 being on Cameron Street and running back along the South side of Tuteur Street, and the lot here conveyed fronting on the South side of Tuteur Street. There is one house on this lot.

I intend by the above description to convey 45 houses, with the respective lots on which said houses are situated, all in the City of Canton, said County and State. All of the foregoing description are made with reference to George & Dunlap's present map of the City of Canton, and additions and subdivisions referred to duly of record in Chancery Clerk's Office, said County.

The purchase price of each of said houses is $275.00, making a total of $12,375.00.

The grantee is to pay the taxes on said property for the year 1921, and is to collect all rents hereafter accruing on said property.

The houses intended to be conveyed are those heretofore pointed out and agreed upon by and between the grantor and the grantee.

It is agreed that in event of sale of any of said houses, grantor will release same from her deed of trust upon payment to her of the proceeds of said sale, or, if sold on time, upon payment to her of the cash received, and depositing with her as collateral security, for her debt the purchase money notes given for balance of such purchase prices, all such payments to be credited upon the notes of said Dobson to said Hesdorffer, above mentioned, and secured by deed of trust of even date herewith.

Witness my signature on this the 11th day of October, 1921.

Leontine Hesdorffer (SEAL)
