

Abstracted

We intend to convey all the interest of the said R. C. Chandler in all the estate of his Father, R. C. Chandler. By this deed we convey all the lands~~s~~conveyed as above set out in the several deeds to W. P. Dewees and R. C. Chandler above referred to, including the land~~s~~situated in the old Town of Livingston, which lies East of the tract of land owned by W. P. Dewees and by W. P. Dewees was conveyed to R. C. Chandler and bounded by the Livingston and Vernon Road on the north and on the East by the Livingston and Brownsville Road as shown on map of Madison County, by E. A. Ford, except the acre owned by the Negroe Church and on which the Negroe Church is situated, & less the fraction of an acre sold by R. C. Chandler to Madison County, less also quit claim over interest in this lot to said R. J. Fondren.

The grantors are to pay the taxes for the year 1921, and also the amount due on the Farm Loan before the last note herein mentioned is paid. Possession is to be given on or before Jan. 5, 1922, and just as soon as the present tenant can be removed.

Said Durfey and Ray also transfer to said Fondren their 30 shares of stock, value $150.00 in the Madison National Farm Loan Association issued in connection with this loan.

Vendors lien is reserved to secure payment of said $3280.00 note.

WITNESS our signatures this 17th day of October, 1921.
