

This deed is made pursuant to authority and direction given us by the members of the said New-Hope Madison Baptist Church, which authority was given us at a regular meeting of the congregation of said church, for the purpose of authorizing this conveyance; and pursuant to said authorization, we make this warranty deed.

It is distinctly understood, however, that the said purchaser shall assume annoe to W.B. Jones for Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), with interest thereon accruing to its maturity, Eighteen Dollars ($18.00), making a total due of Three Hundred and Eighteen Dollars ($318.00), in the face of said note, and which note is due on the 1st day of January, 1927, and is secured by a vendor's lien covering the property herein conveyed.

Witness the signature of the New-Hope Madison Baptist Church, by its Trustees, A. M. Stout, W. E. Mann, J. D. Mann, and E. T. Potts, this the 18th day of January, 1926.
